

PAWS Hurricane Katrina Survivors Need Homes!

Katrina, in 2005, was one of the five deadliest storms in American history. Thousands of families lost beloved pets and countless cats and dogs were left homeless and terrified. With southern shelters overwhelmed, rescues across the nation tried to help. One rescuer saved dozens of pets, and brought them with her to Central PA. Now, these cats and dogs need saved again.

Firstie

Millie

Jett

Snap

Mae

Mouse

Little Bit

Lacey

Roscoe

Shivers

Oscar

Cheddar

Justice

These loving pets have been through tragedy, losing homes and families in 2005. But their spirits are strong and they can't wait to start new lives. See www.centrecountypaws.org , call 237-8722, or visit 1401 Trout Road.

Make a PAWS Katrina Kat or K9 part of your family!

